

March 9, 2022

To all,

Coca-Cola Bottlers Japan Inc.

We have been certified as “2022 Health & Productivity Management Outstanding Organization (White 500)”

Coca-Cola Bottlers Japan Inc. (Headquarters in Minato-ku, Tokyo; Representative Director, President and CEO Calin Dragan; hereafter “CCBJI”) was certified on March 9, 2022 as a “2022 Health & Productivity Management Outstanding Organization (White 500)”, a program that gives public recognition to large enterprises who implement excellent initiatives for health and productivity management.

The program is jointly hosted by the Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry and the Nippon Kenko Kaigi to certify such large, medium, and small enterprises who put excellent health and productivity initiatives in place in line with local health issues and Nippon Kenko Kaigi’s health enhancement efforts.

We regard health management as the top priority in our business operations and work on various health initiatives. We also create a “health first” corporate culture in which each employee understands his/her responsibility in self-maintenance and self-enhancement of health, enjoys active and healthy life styles, and works safely and happily.

We will continue to promote our initiatives in efforts to further evolve and improve our health and productivity management
