

February 22, 2018

To media

Collaboration with government for provision of beverages at times of disaster

"Agreement on securing supplies at times of disaster" concluded with Utsunomiya City

Coca-Cola Bottlers Japan Inc. (Head office: Minato-ku, Tokyo, Representative Director and President: Tamio Yoshimatsu , "CCBJI" hereinafter) and Utsunomiya City, Tochigi Prefecture (City Mayor of Utsunomiya City Eiichi Sato) on Friday, February 16, 2018 held a signing ceremony for "Agreement on securing supplies at times of disaster" at Utsunomiya City Hall, where the said parties concluded the agreement.

This agreement is intended to supply beverages, etc. that CCBJI owns to Utsunomiya City on a preferential basis in response to a request from the said city when it is necessary to secure supplies at a time of disaster such as when an earthquake or any other disaster occurs or is likely to occur in Utsunomiya City.

CCBJI will continue to uphold "Community-based" and "Customer-centric" as its management principles, get close to the lives and daily livings of the people, and carry out initiatives as a total beverage company which provides happy moments and freshness in any occasion in people's lives. Through this agreement, CCBJI will contribute to the living support for the Utsunomiya City citizens at times of disaster.

Utsunomiya City Mayor Eiichi Sato (right) and CCBJI Head of East Japan Area Sales Yasuyuki Shiba signing the agreement